"The Kid" Is He a Boy or Girl?

POLICE GUESSED WRONG when this two-year-old Edmonton child, who looks amazingly like Jackie Coogan's "Kid" of silent pictures, turned up in their lost department. They thought lost child was a girl. But he's a boy—Ronald Intwert, of 10586 109 street.

POLICE TAKE HIM FOR HELEN

Ronnie Escapes Baby Sitter, But Not Cops

At two years of age he's quite a character.
 Thursday night he escaped custody, set out to see the world and wound up in the hands of city police.
 This would-be "knight of the road" is Ronald James Intwert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Intwert, 10586 109 street.
 Thursday night about supper time he was left with a baby sitter.
 He fooled everybody.

He slipped out of the house as his father drove away in his truck.
 The young girl left to look after him thought he had gone with his father.
 Soon the escapee was picked up near the 109 street subway by a man who thought he looked a little too young to be walking the streets.
 Down to the police station he was taken.
 For the next two hours everything nice happened and police sat bewildered.

 With a beautiful head of curls, police thought the youngster they were treating with candy was a little girl.
 It was not until 8:30 p.m. when the parents called city police that the constabulary learned how mistaken they were at calling the cute youngster "a nice little girl" and asking "what's your name—Mary, Helen or Margaret." But Ronnie had no comment.

Young's Sore Throat Causing Flyers Worry

By Stan Moher
 Bulletin Sports Editor

CALGARY, May 7.—Harvey (Pug) Young, burly rear-guard, and Johnny Black of the attacking corps provided worrisome notes in the Flyer camp as the Edmontonians sped through a work-out at Victoria Arena Friday morning.

Young wasn't even on hand, being confined to bed in his hotel room, result of having contracted a sore throat somewhere along the way.

While Young's decision to remain between the sheets was as much precautionary as anything, it won't be known for probably 24 hours whether or not he will be able to take his place in the lineup against Ottawa in Saturday's fifth game of the Allan cup finals.

IT COULD BE BAD
 Young's absence might prove embarrassing in that Doug Lane is complaining again about his injured foot and Gordon Watt, another defenceman, is just getting over a sprained ankle.

Johnny Black attended the practice but did not climb into uniform. He contented himself with a few turns around the rink. It's pretty definite the curly-haired attacker will be able to play Saturday. With Black all but side-lined veteran Louis Holmes filled in at left-wing on the line with Morey Rimstad and Johnny Black.

The Ottawa squad is spending the day at Banff. Originally scheduled to visit the mountain centre on Thursday the jaunt was postponed for 24 hours.

Couch George Boucher will have his team out for a light skate upon their return from Banff. It's anticipated that Alex Smart, scheduled to arrive from the east today, will be on the scene. Smart is a left-winger who stayed behind in Ottawa when the Senators headed West.

Certain of the Flyers are enjoying a quiet laugh Thursday at the expense of certain other members of the team. It seems that Andy Clovechok and one or two more received a "bid" to go on the air from a local radio station. However, when they reached the station no one knew anything about it.

There's more than a suspicion that the "bid" was prompted by some one close to the inner councils of the squad.

TWO HURT IN PRINCE GEORGE CRASH

Aerial Joyride Ends in Wild Plunge, Hospital

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C., May 7.—(CP)—A pilot and his passenger were in critical condition in hospital today after what police called an "aerial joyride."
 Student pilot Wilf Blair and Everett McEachern, Prince George businessman, were injured last night when a light plane crashed on a street corner.
 In a wild plunge, the plane crashed into a tree and nose-dived to the street.

Blair, 24, suffered multiple injuries and shock. McEachern, 48, had a fractured skull, broken jaw, broken leg and internal injuries.
 Authorities said the plane was "buzzing the town" shortly before the crash. Blair was not authorized to fly passengers.

Ata. Floods Worsening In North

Several Families Are Marooned In Farm Homes

Flood conditions became steadily worse in the Rossington district, 60 miles northwest of Edmonton today as the Pembina river continued to rise and flood surrounding areas.

At the small hamlet of Rossington, the river rose more than 10 inches Thursday night and this morning a stretch of more than three miles wide was under water.

Several families are marooned at their farm homes and operations are being organized by RCMP and volunteers to rescue the families or to take food supplies to them.

Several cases of loss of stock have already been reported and it is feared more will be lost unless the waters recede soon.

Only two families have had to be evacuated from their homes, but it is feared the loss of stock, seed grain and to buildings will run into thousands of dollars.

At Manola, about five miles to the southwest, logs are jamming at the traffic bridge, which has been under water for several days.

Crews have been unable to clear the logs from the bridge.

EVACUATIONS SOON
 If the waters continue to rise, about 18 or 20 families near Rossington will have to be evacuated within a day or two.

In addition to the loss of stock and grain, it is believed many farmers will be unable to seed their land. A considerable amount of soil from summer fallowed land is also being washed away.

Along the Sturgeon river valley north of Edmonton, flooding waters continued to rise and Sunday at Side, about 12 miles northeast of the city, cables have been strung to keep the bridge from being washed away.

Just north of Nampa, the water rose about eight inches overnight, but no further damage has been caused. The highway is completely covered by the flooding waters for close to a mile.

At the Crosses Nest bridge, five miles east and about six miles north of Nampa, a landslide has blocked the highway and the bridge is completely under water.

Other bridges between there and the mouth of the Sturgeon, east of Fort Saskatchewan are also under water.

At Whitecourt, the flood waters are receding rapidly and six families who left their homes two days ago have returned today.

NEW THREAT IN B.C.
 Meanwhile, flood waters continued on the rampage in Manitoba and British Columbia rising waters are becoming a serious threat.

In warm weather and spring rains coupled with a late runoff were blamed for threatened floods in British Columbia.

Winter Damage To Streets Heavy

Damage estimated at $100,000 was caused to city's paved, gravelled and dirt roads by unseasonable late winter and spring weather, according to officials of the city engineer's department.

The damage is the heaviest in years.

Greatest damage was done to paving. This damage was mainly due to operation of trolley buses on 40-year-old paving.

It will be necessary to reinforce all bus stops along this paving and work has started on the installation of eight inch base concrete stops along the different routes.

Work on repair of gravelled and dirt roads has started, but recent rains caused a let up until roads are sufficiently dry to run graders over them.

Man Plunges 65 Feet To Death in Oilfield

PRO-DOG, ANTI-SIN MAKES YOU SHOO-IN

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—The 1948 presidential election campaign now can be considered open officially. Two candidates have come out in favor of dogs.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York was first. He rose to the occasion when a terrier came sniffing up to his speaker's platform at Alliance, Neb., a few weeks back.

"Hi-ya, boy," said the governor. "Would you like to come up and join us?"

The dog didn't, as it turned out, but Dewey was not miffed. He told the audience he used to have a terrier just like that when he was a boy.

"The governor is a great dog lover," one of his aides confided to the press.

President Truman went Dewey one better. He came out in favor of kids, too. Children and dogs, Truman told the national conference on family life yesterday, or "just as important as Wall Street and railroads."

Candidates Taft, Stassen and the others haven't formally endorsed dogs to date, but their backers will expect it. A man running for president is supposed to be as firmly pro-dog as he is anti-sin.

Churchill Urges All-Europe Bloc

From BUP and AP Despatches

THE HAGUE, May 7.—Winston Churchill called today for a crusade to unify all of Europe and make it strong enough to smash Communism or any other threat to freedom.

Blue Skies? Not Today

The weatherman told us Thursday conditions would be "unsettled overnight."

They sure were. Today he says a weather disturbance moved into Alberta from the east giving rain and thunderstorms in several parts of the province.

However, he says the "blue" is moving eastward and should hit Saskatchewan about evening.

Today will remain cloudy in Edmonton and district with temperatures slightly lower.

Other temperatures were:

THREATENING

The meeting followed by a few weeks the signing of the Brussels treaty of five Western European nations and soon thereafter the banding together of still other countries under the European recovery program.

"Why should so many millions in the humble homes of Europe—aye, and its enlightenment and culture—sit quaking in dread of the policeman's knock?" Churchill asked.

"That is a question which people should ask themselves."

Worker Hit, Hurt By Falling Body

A 25-year-old oilfield worker plunged 65 feet to his death from atop a derrick and his falling body seriously injured a fellow worker Thursday night in a freak accident at Leduc oilfield.

KILLED is Earl Cunningham, of Millarville. INJURED is Jack Fenton, 19, of Vermilion. He is in Edmonton General Hospital suffering from a possible fractured nose and internal injuries.

Workers who saw the accident said Cunningham had been working atop an 85-foot derrick pulling pipes. He was on his way down and had gone about 20 feet when he slipped and fell.

Fenton, who was working on the derrick floor, was struck by Cunningham's falling body. It was a glancing blow but knocked him heavily to the platform.

Both men were brought to Edmonton by Smith's ambulance. Cunningham was pronounced dead on arrival.

At noon today, Fenton had regained consciousness and appeared to be progressing favorably. Extent of his injuries will not be known until X-ray reports have been examined.

The accident occurred at Home Oil No. 7 well, five miles west of Nisku, at 11:30 last night. Both men were employed by Drilling Contractors Ltd.

Cunningham was not married. His father lives in Millarville.

Hockey Star P. Traub Dies

Well known to Edmonton fans as a member of Regina Caps in the old Western Canada Hockey League of the '20s, Percy "Puss" Traub died in Saskatchewan Wednesday.

He died while driving his automobile.

He was found dead in the car 11 miles north of Swift Current. The vehicle had gone over a ditch and through a fence.

Beef Price Will Keep Climbing Until July

OTTAWA, May 7.—(CP)—The price of beef probably will keep going up until July, a Canada Packers official predicted today to the Prices Committee.

"The supply is good compared with last year, but the demand seems even greater," L. G. Hall, manager of the firm's beef department, said.

"The demand clears all beef as soon as it is ready, but it is especially strong for the most expensive of the best beef. It is particularly enormous for steaks."

"I would think the situation will get worse from now until July. From then on we should have plenty of beef."

Chairman Paul Martin, commenting that there are big stocks of beef in storage, asked Hall: "Isn't that?"

It true to say that, in relation to demand, your supply situation is as good as it has ever been?"

"No," Hall replied. "At this time of year—April until June—you do run into short supply in relation to demand."

"You still have a larger supply on hand than last year," the chairman told him. "What we're trying to do is get the price down. If we don't get it down, this committee isn't going to be the only embarrassed body, I can tell you that."

Atomic Expert Report Bares No New Secret

LONDON, May 7.—(CP)—Science Writer Chapman Pincher said today in the Daily Express that some British atomic scientists are "startled" by publication in the Magazine Nucleonics, published in the United States, of a report describing the basis and methods of manufacturing plutonium.

Pincher quotes "a leading atomic scientist" as saying: "I am surprised, very surprised indeed, at the 10-page report prepared by a Doctor B. G. Harvey, identified as a member of the Canadian Atomic Energy Station."

The Daily Express article said that the Canadian spy trials of 1946 showed that details of the manufacture of plutonium were what Russian agents most wanted.

A National Research Council spokesman at Ottawa said today the method of preparing plutonium was made public officially in 1946 and that there apparently is nothing secret in an article on the subject written by a Canadian scientist for the United States magazine Nucleonics.

Actually said the council official, Dr. Harvey and three Chalk River co-workers wrote details of the manufacture and properties of plutonium in an article published by the journal of the Chemical Society of England in August last year.

That article, which followed the original disclosure of the manufacturing procedure by a year, had been approved by Canadian atomic authorities.

Churchill Urges Anti-Red Union

Europe must arise. "After all, Europe has only to arise and stand in her own majesty, faithfulness and virtue and confront all forms of tyranny, ancient and modern, Nazi or Communist, with forces which are unconquerable and which, if asserted in good time, might never be challenged again."

Churchill said the movement to unite Europe was "a firm expression of Democratic faith based upon moral concepts and inspired by the sense of a mission."

"We welcome any country where the people own the government and not the government the people."

Court Refuses Crown's Request

Prosecutor Says Witness Hostile in Murder Trial

CALGARY, May 7.—(CP)—In a surprise move, Crown Prosecutor C. S. Blanchard yesterday asked that the witness chief witness in the trial of Bernice Dubensky, charged with the June 25 murder of Chinese tailor Mah Kuo Wing, be declared hostile.

The move was made to give the prosecutor the right to cross-examine the witness, 60-year-old Melville Snyder Simpson who earlier had admitted living on intimate terms with the 20-year-old accused woman. The application was refused.

"The answers he has given clearly indicate his intention of not revealing to the court his knowledge of this case," Blanchard said. "It is his desire to say as little as possible."

Simpson will continue to give evidence today.

EARLIER REFUSAL An earlier application by the defence to prevent the witness from giving evidence on the grounds of incompetence was refused.

Simpson walked up to the witness stand without looking at his former companion. Bernice glanced casually at him, then looked away and appeared disinterested while he was giving testimony.

Giving evidence under protection of the Canada Evidence Act, the tale, elderly man said he first met the accused in September, 1946, and that she had lived with him at intervals from that time on.

He testified that he had not known the murdered man. Simpson said that Miss Dubensky had gone out on the evening of June 24.

"She took my bottle of whiskey and away she went. She said she was going to a party."

TOLD OF ATTACK Simpson told the court that someone knocked on the door of his apartment on June 26 and that the accused "thought it was the law." A note, allegedly written by Miss Dubensky to Simpson later the same day said that the accused was leaving for a few days as the law had been at the apartment and that she was afraid she would be connected with the murder as she had been drinking with Wing on the day of the murder.

Simpson said that on July 19, Miss Dubensky had told him "she had killed that Chinaman on Section Street East . . . She told me she struck him over the head with a hammer four or five times, struck him over the head with a bottle and then choked him."

He testified that he had not given this information to the police because "I couldn't believe that she did it."

Simpson also said that Bernice told him she had the dead man's rings and a pair of shoes in her possession.

Jacob Peterson Dies at Rocky

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, May 7.—Jacob Peterson, 103 years old, died in his sleep here Wednesday night. He had celebrated his 100th birthday on April 15 and had walked around his yard during the day and apparently felt quite well.

Born in 1845 in Louroala, Iso county (now Kyyro) in Finland, he came to America as a man of 51 in 1896. He came to Canada in 1900 to work in the mines at Canmore for a few years, then to Rocky Mountain House in 1912 where he worked in the lumber camps for a while, then farmed east of town until he retired in 1931 at the age of 86.

He was a great horseman, learning to ride when he served as a guard to Alexander II of Russia, and even after he was 90, he would go out to the country and ride.

After being a guard to Alexander II, he served in the Russo-Turkish war of 1877 and won decorations from Alexander III and the King of Romania. He could recall the hardships in Russia in the 1890's when the Czar gave relief to the country after the people were near starvation following three years of crop failures.

He was able to read without glasses, and read his Finnish papers from cover to cover. He had given up the English ones the last year. His hearing was good and his memory much better than many people half his age. He could speak half a dozen languages but had forgotten most of them.

WILLINGDON, May 7.—The May meeting of the Col. Reid Chapter IODE was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Tkachuk with Mrs. J. Wooley, co-hostess. Mrs. Geo. Tkachuk, vice-regent, was in the chair. As Mrs. H. C. Reeves had resigned at the previous meeting, Mrs. H. R. Savage was elected as regent for the remainder of 1948.

Treasurer's report showed a balance of $320.00 on hand in the general account and, upon the provincial budget being presented, it was decided to donate at this time our full quota to the various funds amounting to $221.00. Mrs. L. Sereda and Mrs. N. Kalynchuk were appointed a committee of two to see about redecoration of the IODE ward in the Willingdon General Hospital.

The educational secretary, Mrs. Geo. Edluk, conducted an educational quiz on the constitution of Canada. The members agreed to cater for the high school students graduation banquet in June.

"Jim" Celebrates 107th Birthday

James Winter Eats Angel Cake; Also Goes for Ride in Auto

By Mrs. Phyllis Malden
WETASKIWIN, May 7.—James "Jim" Winter has the distinction of being probably the oldest resident in Alberta—he celebrated his 107th birthday on Wednesday.

Mr. Winter spent most of his birthday at his place of residence, the Eventide Home, in Wetaskiwin, because of late years he was unable to do much walking. Although his sight and hearing are none too good, he still feels mighty keen.

Highlights of his birthday were the baking of a big angel food cake for him by Mrs. Ada Loyal and an auto ride in the car of Frank George.

Wetaskiwin Masons, of which he is an honorary member, took "Jim" under their wing several years ago and H. J. Montanary, former labor member, usually acts as official conveyor of smokes on behalf of the Masons.

A veteran of the U.S. civil war, Mr. Winter can't remember much about his early life except that it was spent on a Georgia plantation. Most vivid in his memory is the time he spent on service in the civil war—his wife was killed, gored by a bull, and his two little daughters died of typhus.

Mr. Winter spends a lot of his time at the Eventide home in company of the 15 other residents, whose ages vary from the "young-out" of 62.

High now, Jim Winter is awaiting the annual greeting which he receives from Their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth.

MEANEST THIEF IN WETASKIWIN

WETASKIWIN, May 7.—"Meanest thief" has been operating in Wetaskiwin recently. Twenty-six excellent flood pictures on display in a show window of the Carl Walla studio, were reported stolen.

Mr. Walla had taken a number of pictures of Wetaskiwin's worst flood in history, many of them with great inconvenience. He even left his bed one night to take some of the photos.

Granary Bursts, But 500 Bushels Wheat Salvaged

MILLET, May 7.—Using his truck, Charles Schultz was able to salvage 500 bushels of dry wheat from a granary standing in four feet of water, by elevating it to one on higher ground. Flood water had caused the wheat to swell and the granary burst. He is drying the balance.

The Council road was under about five feet of water during the peak of the run-off and the rural mail courier was met at the road Monday with route 1 mail by men who had rowed across for it. The men then returned by boat and transported the mail to Clover Lawn Store where it was picked up by box-holders.

WARLIKE SHAWNEES NOW KILL SQUIRRELS

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 7.—(AP)—Once, long ago, the Shawnees were a mighty Indian nation—the most ferocious enemies pioneer settlers ever faced. Once, under their Chief Techumseh—greatest war leader in Indian history—they nearly purged the Ohio valley of the white men.

Yesterday the remnant of this tribe—1,400—asked Oklahoma if they could shoot some squirrels. At the state capitol, Chief Little Jim and an interpreter explained to the commissioners of fish and game that it is time for the annual religious ceremony. Squirrel is the traditional food. But the squirrel season doesn't open until May 15.

The white men thought a while and said yes, the Shawnees could shoot for two days out of season.

Bad Roads Make Travel Difficult

PERINTOSH, May 7.—Elmer Campbell took over two hours to negotiate the four miles to town on Saturday on account of wash-outs and detours through fields. Another farmer, Alfred Olson, from a seven mile distance also took four hours to reach Perintosh. He had just backed out from the curb to begin the return journey when a tire on his "Bennett" wagon blew out. The horses looked relieved and the four passengers stood the strain well.

Miss Barbara Schmidt, Central Valley school supervisor, was given a farewell on May 1. She returned to her home at Kingman, Alberta. A new teacher has arrived to take over until the end of the term.

VALVE-IN-HEAD is far ahead!

in performance and economy... in ruggedness and reliability!

Here's why "Valve-in-Head" is Far Ahead" in all-round efficiency

- 1 In the world's champion Chevrolet engine, the valves are located in the head of the cylinder, directly over the pistons... hence the name, Valve-in-Head.
- 2 Valve-in-Head design provides faster intake of fuel mixture... and quicker and more complete exhaust of burned gases... all of which contributes to better performance and economy.
- 3 Valve-in-Head design also permits a more compact combustion chamber; and this, together with Chevrolet's "Blue Flame" combustion, means more driving power for the pistons—less heat loss—and maximum economy.

- 4 Valve-in-Head Engines are inherently easier to cool, and Chevrolet's individual cooling of cylinders prevents waste of power—promotes efficient operation—prolongs engine life.

Moreover, with all of the valve mechanism on top of the engine—and therefore readily accessible—service, though seldom needed, is extraordinarily easy and economical.

Automotive experts and millions of motorists agree: Valve-in-Head is far ahead because it gives an outstanding combination of performance, endurance, dependability and economy... Chevrolet—master builder of this master motor—has proved this by producing more than 20-million Valve-in-Head Engines during the past thirty-seven years—engines which hold the distinction of having delivered more billions of miles of satisfaction, to more owners, over a longer period, than any other power-plant built today! Chevrolet's World's Champion Valve-in-Head Engine is another powerful reason why CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST... another convincing proof that only Chevrolet gives BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

In addition to its World's Champion Valve-in-Head Engine, Chevrolet offers you these other major advantages of Big-Car Quality at Lowest Cost:

- Big-Car Styling and Beauty of Body by Fisher
- Big-Car Comfort of The Unitized Knee-Action Ride
- Big-Car Safety of Fisher Unisteel Construction and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes

Minister Says Re-Wed Divorcees Adulterers

WATERLOO, Ont., May 7.—(CP)—Divorced persons who remarried were described yesterday by Rev. L. H. Fowler of Port Hope, Ont., as "self-confessed adulterers." He told the Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston the church's refusal to marry such persons created a problem.

If a Presbyterian clergyman refused to marry divorced persons he sent them "shopping around the various clergy for someone to solemnize the marriage," Mr. Fowler said.

MARRIAGE LAW OUTMODDED
He introduced a motion to set up a committee to investigate problems of divorce, remarriage and civil marriage. The present marriage act was outmoded, he said. The only grounds for divorce were adultery. He urged an extension of the marriage act to provide for existing marital problems.

A judicial committee decided there is no church law to prevent a minister from combining secular and ministerial activities.

Rev. D. M. Kerr of Toronto had protested the appointment of John V. Mills to a charge at Dixie, Ont., because he held a secular job. Mr. Mills became editor of the Canadian School Journal and secretary-treasurer of the Ontario School Trustees and Ratepayers Association after leaving his charge here.

Royal Family See Great Film Premiere

LONDON, May 7.—(AP)—Headed by the Royal Family, an audience of the elect last night welcomed Sir Laurence Olivier's screen play of "Hamlet." Old timers called it the most brilliant film premiere in London's history.

It earned that distinction partly because the King and Queen have never before, as heads of state, attended a movie premiere that

Howe Rejects Opposition
Calls for Subsidized Building

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, May 7.—(CP)—The Commons talked about housing problems yesterday but did little to solve them. Opposition members hammered at new government housing legislation, terming it adequate, and focused their attack on two main themes: 1. The government should lead a national program for low-rent homes; 2. The government also should take the lead in providing subsidies to keep rents down.

Trade Minister Howe answered the critics with the prediction that "well over" 1,000,000 houses will have been built in the 10 years following the end of the war. Some 200,000 have been built so far—2½ years since the fighting stopped—and the present accelerated rate of building will produce another 250,000 in the next couple of years.

Subsidies would not increase house building, he added. All they would do would be to change the income group which occupied the houses being built. Houses built at any price could be sold.

The day-long debate produced one formal vote. It came when Speaker Gaspard Fauteux ruled out of order a CCF motion expressing belief the government should consider subsidized housing.

TORIES WITH GOVT
In the ensuing vote, he was upheld 117 to 38. Progressive Conservatives, though they have plumped for housing subsidies, voted with the government to sustain the speaker. The Social Credit group sided with the CCF party against the ruling.

The three-party attack kept the government legislation in the resolution stage throughout the sitting. It would provide rental-insurance protection for builders and owners of housing projects renting up to $80 a month.

At the house opening, Howe said Canada's Air Lines has not found it possible to consider a service to Australia. Finance Minister Abbott said no recent representations have been made to the United States for lower tariffs. Canada will consider the situation when circumstances in the United States become "propitious."

The parliamentary committee on Indian Affairs tabled a report recommending that Indians be given the franchise.

Flogged as a Slave, Sang Before Queen, Dies at 102

WINNIPEG, May 7.—(CP)—A man flogged as a slave nearly a century ago and who later sang before Queen Victoria at a command performance in London will be buried Saturday.

The 102-year-old war veteran, George St. Pierre Brooks, died yesterday, taking with him memories of Abraham Lincoln, Henry Ward Beecher, General Custer and many others whom the present generation has grown familiar with only in history books.

His career included service in four wars, the American Civil War, the Cuban Campaign, the Spanish-American War and the First World War.

CLAIMED 106 YEARS

For the last 37 years he lived in Manitoba and on his last birthday, Jan. 1, was seeking proof to establish his age as 106.

A tall negro, Brooks crammed his life with adventure from the time he was whipped as a slave at seven on suspicion of stealing apples.

When the American Civil War broke out, he was 16. He eventually became a personal orderly to General Ulysses Grant when freed by the northerners. He recalled seeing Lincoln in Washington, Gettysburg and Richmond.

He ran foot races for the P. T. Barnum shows after the war. Then his fine voice was spotted by a member of the famous Fluke Jubilee Singers and he was invited to join their group.

WENT TO ENGLAND
On the advice of Henry Ward Beecher the group went on tour to England where they sang before Queen Victoria at Buckingham Palace.

Brooks served as a cook and general servant in the Cuban campaign and later served in the Spanish-American War. At the

PICKLE PACKERS FOR DILL PICKLE

CHICAGO, May 7.—(AP)—The individual selected yesterday by the National Pickle Packers Association as the "man of the year" was a pinch to win the title.

He is Dill L. Pickle, 23, of Kolling Fork, Miss., who works in his father's grocery store. Edward Miller, association secretary, said Pickle was picked "because Dill Pickle is his real name, because he is fond of all kinds of pickles and pickle relish, and because he sells pickles."

Bible Society Not Welcome In Russia

WINNIPEG, May 7.—(CP)—Russia is one country where the British and Foreign Bible Society is not welcome. Rev. W. H. Hudspeth of London, general secretary of the society, said here yesterday.

"However, the church in Russia is at least open to the people and that is something," he added in an interview. "It must not become a competitor or it will be closed. Fundamentally, religion and Communism are competitors, the spiritual against the material."

close of the war, he joined the 10th U.S. cavalry. He was among those sent to the relief of General Custer in North Dakota.

During the first world war, despite being eligible for an old age pension, he served overseas with the Canadian forces as a cook. His pension came later and he settled in Winnipeg.

Until recently his hearing was keen and he read without glasses.

Truman Advised Govt. Can Seize Railroads

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(BUP)—Attorney-General Tom C. Clark said today that he has advised President Truman that the government has ample authority to seize the

The government was holding off on seizures, hoping that it can avert the nationwide strike called for next Tuesday.

But high officials made clear that the lines will be taken over if the government fails to settle the dispute between three unions and the carriers.

The rail road situation and the question of seizing the carriers was explored fully at a cabinet meeting with Truman at the White House this morning.

2,250,000 IDLE
Even as Clark gave his opinion to Truman, leaders of the three unions met in another wing of the White House with presidential assistant John R. Steelman. The presidential aide was reported to have submitted a number of proposals to the union leaders designed to forestall the strike.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Labor department reported today that more than 2,250,000 workers were involved in strikes or labor disputes in the railroad, automobile, telephone, meat packing, aircraft, shipping, rubber and oil industries.

In almost every case, workers seek third-round wage boosts.

Cyrus Ching, chief of the federal mediation service said "Three or four of the situations coming up appear now to have been settled."

He said his conciliators would urge disputants to consider what moves they might take three or six weeks after strikes start "and then make those moves right now to prevent the strikes from occurring."

Arabs Inoculated

HAIFA, May 7.—(AP)—The Army said yesterday all 15,000 persons in the nearby Arab town of Acre are being inoculated for typhoid. Seventy new cases have been reported.

Floods, Weather Delaying Seeding

Reports Indicate Better Progress In Southern Areas

WINNIPEG, May 7.—(CP)—Unfavorable weather and excess moisture, together with flooding in some localities, again has delayed seeding in Manitoba, the Canadian Pacific Railway said today in its weekly crop report.

Wheat seeding is taking place in scattered points in south-central and central sections of the province. If clear weather prevails this week, seeding should become general by May 15, with the exception of the flooded areas.

Southwestern and south-central Saskatchewan reports one to 60 per cent of wheat already has been seeded and with good clear weather, all southern and central district seeding should be well under way by the end of the week. Some sections of northern Saskatchewan are not expected to commence seeding until May 20.

Southern Alberta reported from one to 40 per cent of wheat seeding completed in some districts, and with favorable weather, seeding in most south and central regions should become general next week. Seeding in north-central Alberta is expected to begin May 25.

Forrestal Postpones Defence Conference With Canadians

OTTAWA, May 7.—(CP)—James Forrestal, United States defence secretary, has had to postpone a visit to Ottawa this week-end because of "pressure of business" in Washington, Defence Minister Clayton announced today.

The U.S. official was to have arrived late today for informal discussions with Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the defence committee of the cabinet, and defence headquarters officials.

He expressed hope that it might be possible to accept the invitation to come to Ottawa after Congress had adjourned.

Mr. Clayton emphasized there was "no particular significance" to the postponement.

Foulkes Honors Unknown Soldier

BRUSSELS, May 7.—(CP)—Lt. Gen. Charles Foulkes, chief of the Canadian general staff, yesterday placed a wreath on the tomb of Belgium's unknown soldier.

Later Foulkes visited Gen. E. Baele, chief of the Belgian general staff. Today he will visit the Bruges area where Canadian troops fought after the Normandy landing.

He is scheduled to visit Antwerp Saturday and leave for France Sunday.

Legion Asks Boost For Vets' Allowance

OTTAWA, May 7.—(CP)—The Canadian Legion, asking greater aid, said today that most recipients of war veterans' allowances "are living at the subsistence level."

It contended that allowance rates should be increased to $50 a month for single recipients and $85 for married recipients to help them cope with increased living costs.

Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price, national leader, presented a brief to the Commons committee on veterans' affairs as it began consideration of a bill to amend the Allowances Act, which benefits nearly 29,000 aged and needy veterans and widows as well as orphans.

The government, in the bill, proposes to raise the maximum single allowance from $30 to $40 a month and the top married allowance from $60 to $70. Amounts of allowable outside income also are raised.

The committee completed its prolonged study of a bill to amend the Pensions Act by unanimously accepting a motion aimed at making certain that a veteran gets the benefit of the doubt in his application for pension. It removed a clause entitling the pensions commission to give that benefit, and said definitely that it "shall" be given.

Gen. Price, in his brief on the allowances, also urged:
1. That the act cover Canadians who served only in Britain in the First World War.
2. That it cover British veterans who have lived in Canada 20 years.
3. That there be a number of changes in hospital treatment regulations.

Increased Wheat Price For Ontario

OTTAWA, May 7.—(CP)—Robert McCubbin (L-Middlesex West), parliamentary assistant to Agriculture Minister Gardiner, told Commons yesterday that an increase in the wheat price paid to Ontario farmers will be announced "in due course."

The announcement will be made by Trade Minister Howe, he said, adding: "You can rest assured that the Ontario farmer will be well taken care of."

Ruler Planned For Jerusalem

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER

NEW YORK, May 6.—(CP)—The United Nations, taking the first firm step of a 20-day-old special session on Palestine, voted today to appoint a commissioner for Jerusalem.

Without a dissenting vote, the General Assembly also decided the 58-member political committee should consider further measures for the protection of the Holy City and its inhabitants.

Six countries, including France and Russia, protested, however, against the "inadequacy" of the report of the 12-member trusteeship council which recommended the appointment of a neutral official to administer Jerusalem without police force after May 15 when British drops her mandate.

A source said today Britain refuses to appoint a neutral mayor for Jerusalem and has asked the United Nations to name a man for the job.

Sir Carl Berenson of New Zealand led the attack against the inadequacy of the proposal, predicting the mayor "would be back home without a police force to back him."

Deadline Draws Near In Jew-Arab Crisis

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—Beset by a long series of setbacks, the American effort to end the bloodshed in Palestine approached today a crucial deadline with little apparent chance for success.

President Truman himself stressed that the effort is continuing in every possible way. But other officials noted that Britain is due to surrender her mandate over the Holy Land at the end of next week and an increase in Arab-Jewish warfare is widely feared at that time.

The Palestine situation, in fact, is the centre of current official concern over unsettled conditions in various parts of the world.

By some, Western Europe now is believed relatively secure. The Italian election crisis has been surmounted although the new parliament still has to form government excluding the Communists. Also excitement over Russian pressure on the Western Powers in Germany has died down.

Most responsible American opinion on the subject now leans toward a pan-Islamic pressure to develop in the weeks ahead it probably will come in the south or Middle East.

There has been some talk among officials of possible new Russian

Western Artists To Present Shows

Recognition of Western Talent is Objective Sought

Western Canada's foremost artists have opened a drive to win recognition for western paintings with formation of a group that will give exhibitions in art galleries across the Dominion.

COMMERCE BODY ASK APPOINTEE

Negotiations are underway by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce to have an Albertan appointed to the Canadian Shippers' advisory committee.

This committee was formed during the war as an advisory body to the transport controller's office and has continued since in co-operation with the Board of Transport Commissioners.

All provinces but Alberta and Saskatchewan are represented on the committee.

Utilities Office Open at Calder

Calder residents can now pay their telephone, water and electric light accounts at the treasury branch in the railway centre.

Mayor Harry Ainlay said today that arrangements had been made with the treasury branch to accept payment of these accounts. A charge of five cents will be made for each bill collected by the treasury house, the resident paying this service charge.

The plan will be given a trial for three months and if it proves successful may be extended to other parts of the city. A request for this service has been made by residents in North Edmonton.

Application for local payment of these accounts was made by the Calder Community League.

Officials of the league have indicated to the city commissioners that if residents in Calder fail to take advantage of the service they will not oppose its withdrawal at the end of the trial period.

Don Desaulnier Contest Winner

Don Desaulnier will represent the Alberta Chamber of Commerce in a nation-wide oratorical contest being conducted by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

He is a member of the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce and an insurance salesman.

Chosen Alberta winner over Roger Flummerfelt of Calgary at a meeting of the Edmonton Junior Chamber, Mr. Desaulnier will meet the British Columbia winner in Victoria May 14.

Both men spoke on the subject "It's Great to be a Canadian," and in awarding first place to Mr. Desaulnier, judges said his manner of delivery was more personable.

Jack Randall was picked as the most outstanding Junior Chamber of Commerce member for the year and was presented with a sash.

He will represent Edmonton Jax at the national convention in Banff later this year.

City Men Attend Regina Conference

C. J. Stimpfle, president, and R. N. Russell, vice-president, will represent the Alberta Farmers Union at the inter-provincial agricultural conference to be held in Regina, Monday.

They are leaving for the conference Sunday.

Among the matters coming up for discussion at the conference are the freight rate issue, income tax, legislation to bring the marketing of coarse grains under wheat board control, and an increased initial price for wheat.

Premiers of the three prairie provinces are expected to attend the conference as well as representatives of other farm organizations.

Enumerators Start To Count City Noses

A corps of enumerators will start Tuesday next to count Edmonton's population.

The start is conditional on weather conditions, but civic officials are confident the long delayed spring weather will have arrived by then.

The city's census is taken annually and forms the basis of the voters' lists.

Enumerators also collect considerable data concerning the city's population which is relayed to the Dominion government.

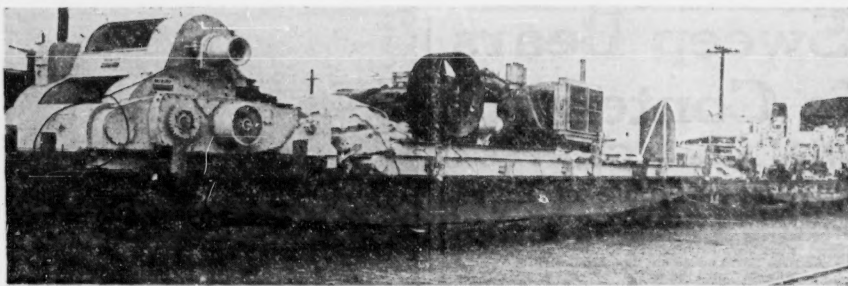

Airport Foreman Retires After Many Years of Service

A man who has fostered the Edmonton airport through from a single landing strip to one of the leading ports in Canada has resigned.

He is Harry Allen, who has been foreman at the airport since its construction more than 20 years ago.

Thursday he retired on pension and was presented with a traveling bag by Jimmy Bell, airport manager, on behalf of his fellow employees as a token of their esteem.

Mr. Allen, who was born in London, England, intends to reside in Victoria, B.C.

Veteran Lion Roland Sladden took over the chair and demonstrated the proper conduct of a meeting to the younger members while veterans Jim Kellas, Jim Wallace, and Father MacLellan lectured on the principles of the Club.

Two Montana Lions, Ray Nelson, Choteau, secretary for district 37, and George Scriven, Great Falls, were guests at the meeting.

Credit Unions Membership Up

Number of Albertans in provincial credit unions increased during the month of March.

Monthly balance sheet released Thursday by the co-operative activities branch of the Department of Trade and Industry showed that during the month of March, membership in the credit unions increased from 23,263 to 23,508.

Total of 216 credit unions have been incorporated in the province. Of these, six have been dissolved, and 12 are inactive, leaving the total of active unions at 192.

Keep Check on Fido: Pound Wagon's Out

Keep your dog tethered or under control. This is the advice given to city dog-owners by police officials as a close check-up on all dogs gets under way this week.

Five summonses were issued today to careless dog-owners who let their animals run loose, on gardens and streets.

Constables Bible and Hill on the city's pound wagon have been given instructions to clamp down on stray dogs and report owners of registered dogs running loose.

Dog-owners are reminded that dog tags do not carry permission for the animals to run loose in the city.

Summonses are being issued under a 10-year-old city bylaw stating dogs are not permitted to run at large unless in control of a competent person.

Owners are further reminded by police officials that dogs picked up by the pound wagon may be destroyed 72 hours after being caught, if not claimed.

TWICE TOO OFTEN TO PAY COST ON ONE CRIME

Should a man pay for his crime twice?

Crown Prosecutor Donald Masson said he thought not in court today.

Richard Anderson, no fixed address, stole two pair of gloves, a can of motor oil and a jackknife from a motorist at Ponoka.

Later he was arrested and sentenced in Ponoka on a vagrancy charge—even after it was known he had stolen the goods.

Coming out of jail after completing 30 days Edmonton police charged him with the theft.

Mr. Masson said he believed the accused had been sufficiently punished. The magistrate sentenced Anderson to one day in jail.

Purity 99s Appear Powerful on Mound

This is the first in a series of articles dealing with the teams in the Big Four Inter-City Baseball League.

By Stan Mohr
Bulletin Sports Editor

CALGARY, May 7.—Baseball know-how guys long have insisted that pitching is 70 per cent of a team's strength. On that basis Manager "Lefty" Wilson's Calgary Purity 99, Big Four champs last season, are again going to be hard to head off this term.

The Oilers, sponsored by Harold Cundal, prominent sportsman-businessman of the southern Alberta city, scampers through a lengthy practice session Thursday night at Buffalo Stadium.

They looked impressive, even though nothing too strenuous was attempted.

Nucleus of the current machine will be provided by holdovers from the champions of a season back. It's in the pitching department that Purity again has that powerful look.

Returning moundsmen include Joe Kanik, the right-hander with the sling shot arm, "Long John" Carpenter, another pitcher who tosses them up from the right side and who paced the loop last season, and Tony Maze, southpaw ace.

NEW PLAYERS

Added to the staff are Verne Richardson, an experienced reliever who has tossed in organized baseball ranks, and Jack (Lefty) Mills, who won 12 out of 13 starts a year ago in Vancouver circles.

No wonder Manager Wilson, lone holdover leader, was able to boast after Thursday's drill: "We'll be the team to beat again this season."

Ken Stewart and "Bing" Weaver will again be on hand to take care of the catching assignments. The first base side of the infield is intact with Walt Gully at the initial sack and hard-hitting Ernie Beaudry carrying on at the keystone spot.

Battling for other infield berths are Gene O'Grady and Woody Hucksbay, regular third-sacker and short-stop respectively, on last season's winner. As well Archie Wilder, Stampede's hockey star, Don McDonald, brother of Stampede, Byron and one or two

Juvenile Ball League Holds First Meeting

Preliminary meeting for the purpose of re-organizing the Edmonton Juvenile Baseball League was held in the Recreation building Thursday night.

Organizing committee consists of: Slim Powell, representing the Federation of Community Leagues; Bill Bull, noted Baseball manager; Bill Robertson, Sea Cadets; Lou Hatt, Cadets; and Emery Callahan, junior ball player.

TENTATIVE DATE

Tentative dates for games were set for Tuesdays and Thursdays at Clarke Stadium, with remaining matches billed for Community League diamonds. From six to eight teams are expected to form this year's loop. North Edmonton, Westmount, Highlands, Calder, Maple Leafs, the Cadets and South Side are considered almost sure starters. The first five mentioned made up the league last season. No starting dates were set.

Another meeting has been called for Thursday, May 13, and all juvenile clubs wishing to join are urged to have a representative on deck. These clubs also are asked to hand their applications for entry to Jack Reilly of the Recreation Commission before the party.

HEARD IN THE DUG-OUT

The Maple Leaf Athletic club is organizing a night baseball loop. From four to six teams are expected to enter, with all games slated for the Maple Leaf stadium, 104 street and 118 ave. A practice for all Leaf midlets, juveniles and juniors has been called for Sunday at 11 a.m.

ADOPT NEW SYSTEM IN WILLINGDON GOLF

CALGARY, May 7.—(CP)—A new selection system for Alberta's Willingdon cup golf team will be adopted this year in an effort to add strength to the team, officials of the Alberta Golf Association announced following a meeting Thursday.

Under the new system, the winning Alberta amateur tournament will automatically qualify for the inter-provincial competition. The remaining three members will be chosen in a special 36-hole medal round from the top 16 players qualifying for the Alberta amateur.

Formerly the team was selected by picking two Edmonton and two Calgary players.

The Alberta amateur will be held at the May Golf and Country Club in Edmonton starting June 24.

The Alberta Amateur will open with a 36-hole play qualifying round. The top 16 players in the round—with the exception of the winner—will be selected to meet in another 36-hole round. Totals will be added together and the top three shot-makers will be selected for the Alberta team.

The new Alberta junior championship also will be a 36-hole play qualifying round. The winning team will be selected to compete in the junior finals and probably will

EACs Plan Erection Of Modern Clubhouse

Youth must be served . . . Realizing this the Edmonton Athletic Club isn't leaving a stone unturned in its efforts to promote sport among young members of the club.

Latest plans of the EAC organization, long prominent in Edmonton sports circles, call for the erection of a clubhouse which in time will embrace all indoor sports.

JUNGLE OF TREES

At present the site (109A avenue and 122 street) is a jungle of trees and stumps, but immediate steps will be taken to clear and level the earth. President Al Anderson said Thursday night.

EAC is the first organization to take advantage of free land offered by the city to sports clubs. Each club in the city has been allocated a strip of earth.

The Edmonton Club is prepared to spend from $2,500 to $3,000 on the project, Anderson stated. The clubhouse will be built so that additions can be made when the time comes, he added. It is expected to be in operation by early autumn.

YOUTH ENTHUSIASM

With the thought that youth enthusiasm was needed to carry on with such an undertaking, members of the EAC were hurried into a huddle Thursday night at the Recreation building. "They all said it's a good idea," Anderson revealed. It is the intention of the club to

For UBC the western intercollegiate basketball final had a happy ending after all. Thursday night at Varsity the Thunderbirds beat the Alberta Golden Bears, and the Golden Bears beat themselves, and between the two of them the rubber match went British Columbia 56-42.

Coach Bob Osborne and his victorious quintet entrained for Toronto immediately following the match. They will take part in a four-team Olympic tournament commencing May 9 in Maple Leaf Gardens.

University of Western Ontario (London) Mustangs, Montreal YMCA and Vancouver Club Leafs are the other three teams competing for the trip to England. The Bears had to take chances if they were to stay in the game.

Bill Rich, Alberta's big gun with 23 Tuesday when Alberta squared the three-day series with a 51-46 verdict, was silent. It was not altogether Rich's doing because he was checked tenaciously all evening. But Broncho Pat McGeer was hot for the winners. He uncorked a 22-point performance in the first match to give B.C. a decisive 62-46 decision. Thursday he looped 18 to lead the Bears further along the Olympic trail.

McGeer is the nephew of the late Gerry McGeer, a coast politician of some note a decade ago. McGeer, the politician, was what might be termed sensational in the field of oratory.

Sensational describes McGeer, the basketball player, under the hoop. McGeer faked the Alberta defense into the North Saskatchewan River in the early minutes for two quick baskets and a 4-0 lead.

DELIBERATE TACTICS

In the latter part of the contest British Columbia resorted to deliberate passing tactics in the Alberta zone. This didn't appeal to a partial Alberta audience, but it kept the Golden Oldies off the scoreboard.

As usual Alberta had Bill Price. The nervous Golden Bear field general went for 13 points to give him a 39 point total for the series.

Price wasn't enough. Boyd Oberholzer fumbled 11 points in a losing cause but Alberta lacked one single player who could score consistently on field tries or foul attempts. In the final analysis Thunderbirds excelled the Bears at dribbling, shooting and passing. And not even the paces of the gallery inspired Alberta to escape the B.C. check.

Alberta has one consolation. No collegiate team west of the Great Lakes could have stopped the long team from the Pacific sweep Thursday night.

THREE DOT STUFF 1,500 fans will bet you all day that Referee Floyd Fessler wasn't seeing them right.

Fessler maintained after the game that he can see so good he watches the grass grow, and that in the U.S. the games are much rougher than in Canada . . . in all respects it was the roughest tussle of the series.

As Alberta's Jim Macrae said "it was murder under the boards." The series drew much better than the promoters of the U had anticipated . . . They got off the hook financially.

Alberta—Evan Erickson 5, Jim Macrae 4, Bill Price 13, Boyd Oberholzer 11, Gerry Macrae 12, Bob Haas 14, Don Rockwood, Charlie Chubbuck, Bill Rich 7, Total—42.

British Columbia—Bill Bell 1, Gerry Stevenson 5, New Munro 1, Jim Macrae 1, Harry Kermode 6, Gord Selman 2, Dave Campbell 4, Bob Scarr 3, John Forsyth, Reid Mitchell, Total—56.

BRITISH COLUMBIA Thunderbirds are on the road to Toronto after defeating Alberta Golden Bears at basketball. Coach Bob Osborne (with the hat) leads their victorious party into Maple Leaf Gardens for an Olympic tournament on May 9-10.

CAPABLE FIRST STRING

A capable first string of Harry Kermode, Bob Haas, Bob Scarr, and New Munro gave McGeer the help he needed to shove the Birds in front.

B.C. secured a 27-17 at the half. McGeer accounted for 12 points in the frame, while his mates effectively quieted Alberta's scoring thrusts. Haas and Kermode had the Thunderbird backboards well covered. There were no rebounds for Golden Bear sharpshooters.

The Bears faded like a two-bit pair of socks in the second half, their passing became erratic, their shooting spotty. And they couldn't stem blue and gold traffic beneath their own basket.

At one stage British Columbia led 36-18 to settle the issue beyond doubt. Haas and Scarr were largely responsible in a scoring way for the 29-25 edge the westerners had in the half.

Smart, along with defenceman Ray Trainor, did not choose to come west when the Senators headed this way in quest of Allan Cup laurels. However, the present plight in which the Ottawans find themselves in their series against Edmonton Flyers prompted Jim McCaffrey of the Senators to message the pair to come on for the remainder of the series.

Trainor is not expected in Calgary until Saturday morning.

His coming will pose a problem for Ottawa's coach, George (Buck) Boucher in that there will be four defence men in camp. If Boucher wants to throw three lines at the Flyers in the Saturday tilt he must drop one of the rearguard.

MUST DROP PLAYER Presumably, after coming so far for a pinch-hitting role, Trainor will get the call at game time. This means that one of the following: "Butch" Stalahn, Bobby Copp or Frankie Mathers—must be dropped.

On the other hand Boucher may elect to go with eight forwards, enabling him to shoot all four defencemen westward.

After a day's Al Rollins layoff from practice, following Flyers' 3-3 victory in Wednesday's skirmish, both squads will stage Friday practice sessions. Flyers are billed for an 11:00 a.m. showing.

Senators Hope to Turn Tide With Smart and Trainor

By Stan Mohr

(Bulletin Sports Editor)
CALGARY, May 7.—Alex Smart is a product of Winnipeg hockey circles who headed east several seasons back to become one of the most feared forwards in senior puck ranks down Ontario-Quebec way.

A left-winger, the bespectacled Smart, will rejoin his teammates of the Ottawa Senators here Friday morning. Later in the day he will work out with the eastern kings for the first time in two weeks.

Smart, along with defenceman Ray Trainor, did not choose to come west when the Senators headed this way in quest of Allan Cup laurels. MACDONALD COACHES SCHOLASTIC BOXERS

Rockabye Roddy MacDonald has turned boxing coach these times.

When Edmonton school boy pugilists begin training for the provincial interscholastic finals, the western Canadian lightweight king will show them how. The interscholastic final is billed for Athabasca on May 24.

Also included in the Athabasca slugfest is school boy wrestling. Jack Reilly of the Recreation Commission has the grapplers under his wing.

Training for both wrestlers and boxers commences in the Recreation building May 11 at 7:30 p.m. Gordie, Riddell, Bobby Bacon, Jimmy Ego, and Oscar Kruger headline MacDonald's charges. The mittmen will be groomed for berths in 13 classes from 70 pounds through to the heavyweight division.

Six Teams Enter Soccer Circuit

Six teams were accepted into the City Soccer League at a council meeting in the Recreation Building Thursday night. Tom Green, president of the Edmonton and District Football Association, was in the chair.

The teams—Cloverdale, Oliver, Annabets, R.F.A. Maple Leaf Juniors and North Side Legion—will boot the ball on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday nights. It was decided to hold only one Sunday game, starting at 3 p.m.

The league will swing into action May 22, with a charity exhibition match crashing the spotlight. In this tussle R.F.A. will meet an All-Star team picked by the council.

Arsenal Edged

OPORTO, Portugal, May 7.—(Reuters)—The English soccer champions, Arsenal, lost 3-2 to the Oporto XI Thursday night.

Most of the clubs are graced with new faces this season. Several of these "new bloods" are from the Old Country and should add plenty of strength to the league.

Longden To Visit Edmonton

CALGARY, May 7.—About "peeps": Johnny Longden, famed rider of Canadian and U.S. tracks who recently scored over the 3,000 mark in winners, will visit Edmonton during the August race meeting. . . . It will soon be 20 years since the man, who came out of the coal mines of Taber to become the lion jockey ever to make 3,000 and more trips to the winner's circle on the race courses of this continent. Last three legs over a thoroughbred at the Edmonton half mile oval.

No, it's not expected that Longden will accept any mounts while hereabouts. These times the combination of Longden riding the Canadian-owned Irish-bred Matosta is a big thing in west coast racing circles.

Frankie Mathers, who has been something of a bust in the current Flyers-Ottawa Allan Cup wind-up, is said to be about ready to announce that he will accept a professional bid from Toronto Maple Leafs. . . . Mathers wouldn't affirm or deny this was put up to him, the other afternoon. . . . "I can't say," he grinned. Then he added: "Boy, am I a great help to you fellows."

"Chubby" Scott, the one-time Eskimo of the early 1920's came down from Didsbury for Wednesday's Ottawa-Edmonton tilt. . . . He's a heap big man at 200 pounds-plus.

"Grey Ghost" Boon To Lear?

More about "peeps": once the grey ghost of western grids, veteran Fritz Hanson is preparing to play an active role in the line-up of Les Lear's Calgary Stampede next autumn. . . . The onset of 10 years ago still carries him in jaunty fashion and will probably be no end of help to Lear, particularly if the Stamps come up with a good forward wall.

It's anticipated that more than 450 horses will be stabled at Calgary's Victoria Park for the approaching spring meeting. . . . A good many U.S. owners will ship across the line, including Lou Marks, the popular Kentuckian.

Both Al Rollins and Andy Ciochek of the Flyers plan to head for the Pacific coast once the struggle for the Allan Cup is wound up. . . . Wives of both will accompany them.

Manager Ed Morris of the Big Four Baseball League Eskimos once was a battery mate of Purity's John Carpenter. . . . This was a decade ago when each was a Chicago Cub rookie playing ball on Catalina Island. . . . Next time Morris gets a look at Carpenter he'll undoubtedly be anxious to pin back the ears of the Big Four's top moundsman in 1947.

They say that Alex Ulfman definitely will not be back with Calgary Buffaloes. . . . However, he shouldn't be allowed to drift out of the circuit. . . . He's mighty good box-office bait.

Golf Official Heading North

Still more about "peeps": Harold Banks, assistant secretary of the Royal Canadian Golf Association, will confer Friday with Calgary fairways brass. . . . By not later than the next day the man who operates out of 992 Bay Street, Toronto, should make it to Edmonton. . . . Banks is on a selling jaunt through the west, his wares the $1,000-per-man plan of the RCGA for improving the calibre and management of Canadian golf.

There's a good chance that Bill Richardson, Camrose puck prodigy who played with Les Cunningham's San Francisco Shamrocks the past season, will move up the ladder to Minneapolis of the U.S. loop, season 1948-49. The 20-year-old forward had a fine record with the "Rocks." . . . Roy Russell, veteran saddlesmith of the Prairie circuit, is among the gang of riders who exercise the equines each morning at Victoria Park.

Now that the fire marshal has stepped in and forbidden further use of what is laughingly known as a risk at Trail the hand of the hockey people in the Smelter City may be forced and a new puck palace result. . . . Mr. Fire Marshal has forbidden any spectators in the present rink after December 1, this year. . . . Incidentally, Mike Buckman is now telling it that he could have played in Czechoslovakia as a hockey coach, was, in fact offered a five year contract. . . .

A's Take Over First Place By Bombarding Bob Feller

NEW YORK, May 7.—

(CP)—A healthy disrespect for baseball's top pitcher brought the Philadelphia Athletics into first place in the American League Thursday, as they bombarded Bobby Feller with base-hits to defeat Cleveland Indians 8-5.

The loss, Feller's second against as many wins, shoved the Indians out of the league leadership for the first time this season. The A's lost to Bobby for four runs in the first inning, added two in the third and drove him to cover with a three-run attack in the fourth.

Two costly errors—two easily errors by Manager Lou Boudreau at shortstop accounted for the first four Philadelphia runs. Ken Keltner and Joe Gordon hit home runs for the losers.

A mild rhabdomyositis Detroit first baseman George Vico and Boston catcher Birdie Tabbs enlivened the Tigers' 8-3 victory over the Red Sox. Tapped out on an attempted squeeze play, Vico tossed a punch at Tabbs, who hit back. Then the both players broke it up, ejecting both players from the ball game. Vico had a cut near the left eye and Tabbs had a scratch on his nose. Both blamed "peacemakers."

The Boston loss snapped a four-game winning streak. "There were high-jinks at New York, too, as it rained towels at Yankee Stadium when St. Louis Browns protested that a two-run homer by Bobby Brown had left the park in foul territory. The eighth inning blow gave the Yankees a 6-5 victory.

The towels disappeared into the Brown dugout and starter Al Roy, who vanished in the direction of a Yankee shower as reliever Joe Page saved him the victory in the ninth making Reynolds 4-0 record the base in the majors.

Johnny Mize clouted the New York Giants within a few percentage points of first place in the National League as he drove in three runs on at many hits, including his fourth homer, to lead them to a 9-2 win over the top-ranking Pittsburgh Pirates. Ray Pate threw a four-mitter for the winners.

Good pitching paid off for the second successive night at Washington, where Early Wynn blanked the Chicago White Sox with three hits to give the Senators a 5-0 victory.

Soccer Practice The Maple Leaf Athletic Club's soccer team will hold an outdoor workout at Clarke Stadium Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock. All interested players are asked to turn out.

Baseball Workout The CNR junior baseball club will hold its first outdoor workout of the season at Calder school grounds Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Coach Lou Host will be in charge.

CAGE TEAMS JOIN PARADE OF FLYERS

Six city basketball teams which captured Alberta and western Canada cup trophies this year will form a section of the huge parade in honor of Edmonton Flyers, win or lose the Allan Cup.

Clare Hollingsworth, cuba coach and supporter, was given the green light Thursday by Mayor Harry D. Ainlay and parade marshal, Fred W. Purkiss.

The championship hoopla teams are Varsity Golden Bears, western intercollegiate winners; Precision Machine, Alberta intermediate men; "Y" Toppers, provincial juniors; Victoria High School, provincial intermediate ladies; and Mertons, Alberta senior ladies' champs.

If everything runs true to form these clubs will be in the procession, Hollingsworth said.

Ducey Issues Warning To Tardy Ball Players

It became known Thursday night that baseball promoter John Ducey is a firm believer in the old slogan "practice makes perfect."

Ducey, convalescing at home after a severe attack of the flu, maintained enough strength to issue a stern warning to signed players who have been a bit tardy about turning out for practices with the Eskimos and Cubs of the Big Four Baseball League.

The terse statement went something like this: "Training sessions are scheduled for Friday at 7 p.m., Saturday 2 p.m. and Sunday, 1 p.m. and signed players had better turn out, or else." Bad weather, apparently will be their only excuse.

In the meantime co-promoter John Beatty is carrying on alone. He's pretty busy, too. After keeping things in order at the office, he attended the training session at Renfrew Park and was last seen giving out with a few hurling tips to junior Al Purvis. Purvis was chucking to Colin Kilburn, another junior hopeful, and Beatty was stressing the importance of the follow through.

Close to 30 players turned out and went through morning exercises, including pitching, running and walking. The majority of the players were in uniform for the first time.

Ducey reported that Frank Gonzales, Tony Chulia and Ray Capena would arrive Friday night via CPR.

John Krok of Saskatoon and Jerry Whitney checked into the Calgary Buffaloes' camp on Thursday, according to a report from the Foxhills City.

Highland Games The Edmonton Highland Games Association will meet at the EGD Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Bob Edwards Again Heads Rock-Heavers Of Edmonton Curling Club

Re-Elected For Third Term; Artificial Ice Plant Assured

J. R. (Bob) Edwards, popular president of the Edmonton Curling Club, is beginning to wonder if there is any percentage in putting one's shoulder to the rock and giving his very best.

Three years ago Edwards was elected to the helm of the club and when election time came around the following year he firmly resolved to have the post voted on to any other member of the club. But after that vote he was still sitting on the throne.

Then came this year's election. More convinced than ever that it was a position that should be passed along among the members, Edwards finally made up his mind that he was through. He was nominated again at the directors' meeting and was elected in despite his loud protests.

The same thing will probably happen again next year—for Bob is tops among the club's rock-heavers.

Two meetings were held at the clubhouse Thursday night—a general meeting and a meeting of the board of directors. At the general meeting, directors were elected for two-year terms; namely: Dr. Duncan Stewart, J. W. Broderick, Herb Crawford, J. A. Macleod and A. B. Roques.

Those still in office from last year are J. R. (Bob) Edwards, C. Lee, C. V. Gilroy, H. S. Miller and J. E. Brissette. Delegates to the Alberta Curling Association are Lou Cairns, Miller and Edwards.

George Laight, another exceptional member of the club, was elected secretary-treasurer for his third term. Duncan S. Sinclair was elected auditor.

The prospect of having artificial ice for next season appeared to buoy the spirits of the members. Laight reported that the balance of the pine for the project would arrive next week and that the new plant would be completed by Canadian Ice Machine Company at an estimated cost of $43,000. Laight also announced that shares in the club were at a premium.

Taking no chances that a fire might crumple their dreams, the club decided to increase the insurance on the building from $20,000 to $50,000.

The financial report showed that operations for the year resulted in a net profit of $2,351.56.

Sunday Mother's Day To Be Glamour Gal

By Bea Thrifty

Every day is ladies' day for most men—but Sunday is Mother's Day for everyone.

Mother may be a pretty substantial sort of a person—but let her be a glamour gal for at least one day.

Don't give her something too practical and unimaginative—or something for the house—give her a gift that's strictly personal—something fluffy, or ultra-chic—depending on her type.

Never be afraid that mother will think your present too frivolous—she'll love it—just watch.

Each year there's a tremendous last-minute, frantic rush for Mother's Day gifts—and everyone ends up buying the old standard.

Daughters usually rely on slips and nightgowns—sons fall back on candy.

Most women—regardless of age—like a touch of glamour with their domestic outfits—especially if it's a new one.

No 10's a handsome handkerchief to carry—also an excellent gift.

Another of extreme white linen and decorated with delicate work embroidery—for $5.

No woman can ever have too many pairs of white gloves in the spring and summer season. And this year all the clothes are to glove-conscious.

An attractive, well-fitting glove which boasts gathering at the wrist with a silk-material rosette costs only $3.50.

Buy the washable fabrics for practical background.

Mothers who take pleasure in sewing a fine seam will be specially delighted by receiving a pair of pinkish seissors... can't seem to stay away from the practical gift—can we?

These pinkish seissors—cheap and if you can find them—sell for around $7 or $8.

Desperation may drive you to buying Mother an umbrella if it isn't really such a bad idea—especially living in this somewhat damp climate with which we're blessed.

You might pick up one of the navy blue efforts that are trimmed with silver-grip piping and amber handles. The handles can be monogrammed in silver later if Mother so desires.

These are available, by the way, for around $6.

CROSS COUNTRY FLUSHES: Tomatoes grown in Vancouver are selling in Winnipeg for $1.25 per pound.

Tomato-starved Winnipeggers rejoice.

Actress Janis Carter demonstrates the exercise Joseph Lowman recommends for the lazy girls who want to lose their waists sitting down.

Why Grow Old?

By Joseph Lowman
(THE FRIDAY QUESTION BOX)

Q. "Can you give me an exercise which will make me more flexible and limber and will also reduce my waistline? I hate standing exercises."

A. "Lazy you! However we aim to please, so here goes! Sit on the floor with your legs stretched out on the floor in front of you and your legs widely separated.

Do only 10 minutes of this little exercise and the glands in the scalp are relaxed.

Through brushing you will help maintain their action. It is true that this temporarily makes your hair more oily but I feel you will be benefited, later. Turn the bristles of the brush toward your scalp at the base of the hair. Sweep upward, turning the bristles toward the ceiling as you approach the end of the hair. This gives the hair a gentle pull.

Q. "Is it possible to increase a woman's bust measurement after the age of 25?"

A. Yes. The only way we can increase this measurement is through exercise which develops the chest muscles.

Q. "Please tell me in your column how to do a model's exercise. I want to be a model someday. I don't think my measurements are suitable."

A. You are in very good shape. I want to be a model someday. I don't think my measurements are suitable.

Q. "My problem is about hair. I brush it every day but when I brush it the next morning my hair has fallen out. Is this normal?"

A. Keep brushing your hair but be sure to do it in a way to stimulate your scalp. When hair is

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Modern Spinsters Not Family Parasites

IN THE OLDEN TIMES when marriage was the only profitable avocation open to women, it is easy to see why every girl was in hot pursuit of a husband, and why, if she failed to get one, it advertised her as lacking in charm and desirability.

The fate of the spinster in those benighted days was indeed a sad one, for the unmarried woman was forced to wither away on the parent vine, or else be an unwanted fringe on the family of some relative.

A marriage certificate was her card of admission to everything that was worth while in life. And certainly no women were more so. So it is no wonder that the unmarried woman was looked upon as a failure, and that the term "old maid" became a mockery and a reproach. But, thank Heaven, all of this belongs to the Dark Ages. We have become civilized enough now to think that whether a woman marries or does not marry is her own personal business, and it is no more a reflection on a woman to be single than it is on a man. It is just whether she prefers to live in single or double harness.

COPY BACHELORS

Nothing combats so clearly how far the emancipation of women has come as does the attitude they now take about marriage. Of course, there are still plenty of women, with most heart than brains, who will fall for the first man who asks them to marry. But the number of women who marry just because they don't want to be old maids is small.

Men have grown more rather than less dependent on women. Men have grown more rather than less dependent on women. Men have grown more rather than less dependent on women.

She is self-supporting. Nor does she have to live under her mother's thumb. She can set up her own home and live just as independently as if she were a man. She can command just as good a salary as her ability rates. So there is no use in pitying poor Miss Sally. Especially when you are how much better dressed she is than her married sister.

Neighborhood That Lacks in Democracy

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The most important duty of living today is for us to keep stressing the value of democracy. Not just democracy for the world, good as that is, but democracy for daily living in the home, school, business, city, county, state and nation.

Our efforts for good relationships can start right where we are, and with the persons with whom we associate.

Democracy is defeated when we express petty snobishness against our neighbors when we criticize some children from companionship with ours because they are not of our particular color, little, social group.

This is detestable and imprudent on impressionable children's feeling of class that is the very antithesis of democracy.

Mrs. B. M. says she lives in a neighborhood where the neighbors are divided into groups, each group refusing to allow their children to play with the children of the other group. It seems very childish, she writes, "for a mother to grab an innocent child out of a group because she doesn't happen to like some other mother."

I remember how unhappy I was as a child when my mother kept me from association with certain families. I do not know today who she did this. But as I grew older I sought out those children and one of them is today my best friend.

I have never refused my children the privilege of playing with anyone. So far they have chosen children I like. If a child swears, or is dishonest, my children tell me they don't like them because of those traits. I'd love to have your opinion of this.

MORE IMPORTANT

You have it. It's more important for a child to play with a child he likes and who likes him than to play with the most socially desirable individual.

It is a good education for children to play with all kinds of children. To discover that social position has nothing to do with the possession of traits of character. Children are children and prone to err. We should disapprove of the errors but continue to like and welcome the children.

Mothers who rear their children for the good life will find them seeking children of like standards. But this is different than for one group to turn up its noses at another group; and criticize children wholesale.

Such practices establish attitudes which make a farce of democracy. When we who are privileged to enjoy it, fail to apply it in our daily lives, we have only to blame ourselves—not outside influences—when it sickens and dies.

Impress Your Crowd
By Telling Fortunes

Fortune-telling is the fun of the hour. And how easy it is to be the center of attention. Because you can read the cards, the crystal ball and have an inkling of the future.

The next time you're at a party and there's a lull in the conversation, the cards will be the talk of the evening. Everybody has a question to ask the cards and you, just the cards.

When will I be married? Have the questioner pick four cards. Turn up the cards and see the future. A king of spades means marriage in a very short time, a queen of hearts means a long courtship.

Mrs. J. E. Carmichael Re-Elected President

Mrs. J. E. Carmichael was elected to her second term of office as president of the Women's Canadian Club of Edmonton at the annual meeting held in the Macdonald hotel Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

Outstanding qualities of recent speakers to the club was stressed by Mrs. Carmichael in the president's report. Speaking on the selection of guest speakers she stated that they are chosen by the Canadian Club National Association in Ottawa.

Because three months are required for a speaker to travel from Halifax to Vancouver, addressing Canadian Clubs from coast to coast, many speakers are unable to make a complete trip. For that reason speakers address eastern clubs only, not making the western trip.

It is the addition of membership fees which enables the financing of the trip.

Mrs. J. C. Bowen was named honorary president, while Mrs. E. C. Manning and Mrs. Robert Manning were named honorary vice-presidents.

Other officers elected were Mrs. T. H. Field, first vice-president; Mrs. George L. Hudson, second vice-president; Mrs. W. G. Firth, third vice-president; Mrs. M. C. Former Teacher Hurls Barbed Pen at Males

Writes "Love Is a Four-Letter Word", Tells What's Wrong With Opposite Sex

By Robert Musel

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 7. (UP)—April Taylor, who gave up teaching school to crusade for her sex, has given the male of the species one of the most savage spankings on record. "All men tell lies to all women," is Miss Taylor's theme. Her catalogue of what is wrong with the opposite sex runs for 185 pages of a newly published book, "Love Is a Four-Letter Word" (Harcourt Press).

There is one grudging chapter in which Miss Taylor admits there may be some good in a very few men. She titles it "A Good Man Is Hard To Find."

But for the most part Miss Taylor gives the male a severe thrashing. On behalf of the male, she writes of Miss Taylor's attack, I inquired with her to inquire whether she was not a bit too severe. "I am not," she replied.

READY TO WED AGAIN

Miss Taylor, who is a divorcee, has been divorced twice. But she says she divorced her first husband to assure me that it had not affected her viewpoint and she was looking forward to a future marriage.

I still love my husband, she says, and wish them all wherever they are, she said, smiling as though she meant it. I wrote the book because I've felt that too many men have far too long gotten too much for too little.

"When word of the text got around, Miss Taylor's book began to sell in all the bookstores," she said. "I was surprised to find that women who wanted ammunition for their husbands or boy friends. They got plenty."

"A man in pajamas likes to feel like a god," said Miss Taylor, apropos of nothing that had come before. Then she said that married women who are lovely, sensitive, and intelligent, should be better poets in this world, usually fall in with that mood by telling their husbands they are wonderful.

And what does womankind get for this kindhearted cooperation? "Nothing," she said.

Hawaiian Girl Gives New Ideas on Slimming

NEW YORK, May 7. (CP)—Monika, who is a Hawaiian girl, is showing New York how they trim down a body. She is a slim, dark-skinned girl, and she is a native of Hawaii.

All Hawaiian girls are adept at this. That's what Monika says, and she adds it explains the slim waistline and shapely legs of the hula dancers.

Let me tell you how to do it, she says. Ah, she said, the legs. That's where the secret comes in. You do it like this. She pointed to her legs. Ah, she said, the legs. That's where the secret comes in. You do it like this. She pointed to her legs.

Activity Reports From IODE Chapter

Reports of sending food parcels to Britain, canvassing for the blind campaign and naming the registration fund for the 7th clinic were received at the recent meeting of the Duke of Edinburgh Chapter IODE.

Mrs. H. A. Wildman, regent, presided at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lyndon. Letters of thanks were read from the teacher and pupils of the chapter's adopted school, thanking the members for supplies and treats sent them.

Plans were made for a rummage sale and autumn bazaar. It was decided to subscribe to The Canadian, a veteran hospital newspaper.

Women with the most successful wardrobes never underestimate the importance of their over-everything-coat. This spring news is in the return of the ensemble coat made to go with harmonizing dress, but not too special for other clothes.

Fashion-wise women want a coat with a slightly more formal quality in a new kind of casual style that can be worn over an afternoon dress yet be suitable to wear at afternoon at the races.

They want a distinctive basic coat with a talent for change, fitting the diversified life of the woman of today.

In keeping with the demand for pretty fashions, spring's summer coats are cut with a sweep and swirl, the silhouettes varying from full-length fitted models, long, generously-flared "greatcoats" to boxy or cravat-like shorties. Navy blue rates high—especially for the fitted coat—with the rippling skirt.

There's a charm in one store window—of navy blue, covert cloth—that fits snugly and smoothly from shoulder to waistline and flares gently from there to the hemline.

"Held-in-the-back" comes to the fore in the fashion picture again

the little coat for spring is back at the top of the list—with white and gray winning first honors. Pussy-willow gray shirred coat, cut with rippling back and graceful sleeves looked more than smart on a tall, interesting looking brunette. She was wearing a cherry-red suit underneath.

Having a fast cup of coffee one afternoon in Pic 1 noticed an au-burn-haired young woman make an entrance with her small, frocked coat of a subdued, subtle shade of blue green, styled simply with a brown collar and suggestion of flare from the shoulders.

Her accessories were a rich, rusty brown—the same shade as her little boy's corduroy coat and Ron cap.
